Gentlemen:

We are gathering material for a comprehensive story on golfing around the world, and we would appreciate it if you could send us the following information about golf courses in your country and its territories, possessions and protectorates:

1. names, addresses and telephone numbers of golf courses (public and private) which can be used by visitors.
2. a) number of holes of each course, degree of difficulty, par.
b) greens fees, caddy fees, and any other charges collected.
c) type of introduction to course required of visitor, if any.
d) dates course is open for play to visitors.
e) means of public and private transportation available for access to all golf courses.
3. rental of golf clubs, where and at what cost.
a) availability of accessories, that is, golf balls, golf tees, golf carts (motorized and hand).
4. pertinent facts regarding the history and reputation of each golf course: when founded, by whom, names of celebrated golfers who have played there or frequent the course, tournament played on the course, and any similar information.

If you do not have this information, but know of another agency that does, would you kindly pass our letter along to them for handling, or obtain the information from them.

Your prompt reply would be greatly appreciated, and, thanking you in advance for your attention to our request, we remain

Very truly yours,
